

Pathway to Tomorrow

In the journey of life, I see the spark,
Unique talents and dreams that light the dark.
Interests bloom like flowers in spring,
Guiding choices, making hearts sing.

Challenges rise, like mountains tall,
Yet with courage, I face them all.
Adapting to changes, I find my way,
In home, school, and work, each day.

Struggles may come, and doubts may grow,
But within me, strength continues to flow.
With support from friends and family near,
I conquer my fears, and persevere.

Creating my future, embracing the new,
With every step, I see it through.
Prospering, thriving, I forge my path,
Encouraging myself, I embrace life's wrath.
